MARCH 27-29 , 2012

THE CITY OF CALGARY

Alberta Specialized Law Enforcement Training (ASLET) in conjunction with the Calgary Police Service and the City of Calgary - Building Regulations are hosting a three day War on Grow Ops Conference in Banff, Alberta. The Training is open to all sworn law enforcement members and invited guests. Seating is limited and interested members are encouraged to register early. There is a fee of $350 to attend the training which includes health breaks and 2 breakfasts, 3 lunches, and a banquet. Candidates are responsible for their own accommodation, meals not provided above, and incidentals/travel.

This conference will educate and inform all partners and municipal/provincial agencies on the life cycle of a marihuana grow operations (MGO's) from the enforcement through to remediation. It will provide a forum to showcase the collaborative approach that has been developed and adopted to investigate, eradicate, and remediate a property so that it can be safely occupied and no longer a liability to our communities.

Dress code is business casual (no jeans).

Agenda:

- Health and Safety Risks associated with Grow Ops - Alberta Health Services
- MGO's - Investigative Challenges and Issues - ALERT S/Sgt. Tom Hanson
- Coordinated Safety Response Teams History and Future - City of Calgary, Mr. Wayne Brown
